

Orbis

Code of Conduct & Ethics

|                         |                                                  |
|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| Category         | Conduct                                          |
| Policy Owner     | Legal & Human Resources                          |
| Effective Date   | January 1, 2026                                  |
| Next Review Date | January 1, 2028                                  |
| Applies To       | All employees, contractors, and interns of Orbis |

1. Our Values

Orbis is guided by four values: Integrity — we are honest and consistent in what we say and do; Respect — we treat colleagues, customers, and partners with dignity; Accountability — we own our decisions and their outcomes; and Excellence — we hold ourselves to a high standard of work.

2. General Expectations

Every employee is expected to comply with the letter and spirit of this Code, regardless of seniority, role, or location. Employees who are unsure whether an action is appropriate should raise the question with their manager, HR, or the Legal Department before proceeding.

3. Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption

Orbis has zero tolerance for bribery or corruption. Employees must not offer, give, solicit, or accept anything of value, including cash, gifts, or favours, in exchange for improper business advantage. Facilitation payments to expedite routine government processes are strictly prohibited.

4. Gifts and Entertainment

- Nominal gifts (mugs, pens, calendars) of commemorative nature are acceptable without approval.
- Any gift or entertainment above INR 1,000 in value requires prior written approval from the employee's Department Head.
- Employees may not accept gifts that could reasonably be seen as influencing a business decision.

5. Conflicts of Interest

Employees must make business decisions based on Orbis's best interests, not personal, financial, or family interests. Any employee with a relative applying for or working at Orbis must disclose the relationship to Human Resources; family members may not have direct or indirect reporting relationships to one another.

6. Anti-Harassment, Discrimination, and Workplace Conduct

Orbis is committed to a workplace free of harassment, discrimination, and bullying, whether based on age, gender, race, religion, disability, sexual orientation, or any other protected characteristic. Sexual harassment of any kind is strictly prohibited and is separately governed by the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) provisions described in the Work Policy. Employees who experience or witness discrimination or harassment should report it to their manager, HR, or through the anonymous SpeakUp channel described in Section 12.

7. Protection and Use of Company Assets

Company property — including laptops, access cards, data, and intellectual property — must be used only for legitimate business purposes. Employees must not install unlicensed software, share passwords, or use unauthorized personal messaging apps (e.g. WhatsApp, Telegram) for official business communication.

8. Confidentiality and Data Handling

Employees must protect Orbis's confidential information and any personal data of employees, customers, or partners that they access in the course of their work. Confidential information must not be shared outside the Company or used for personal gain. Detailed data-handling rules are set out in the Data Privacy Policy.

9. Insider Trading

Employees who become aware of unpublished price-sensitive information must not trade in the Company's securities, or share such information with others, until it is publicly disclosed.

10. Outside Employment and Business Interests

Employees must obtain prior written approval from Human Resources before accepting outside employment, serving on an external board, or holding a controlling stake (5% or more) in a business that could conflict with Orbis's interests.

11. Fair Dealing and Competition

Employees must deal fairly with customers, vendors, and competitors and must not obtain information through improper means such as misrepresentation or unauthorized access. Orbis does not enter into agreements with competitors to fix prices or allocate markets.

12. Reporting Concerns

Employees who suspect a violation of this Code should report it to their manager, Human Resources, the Legal Department, or through Orbis's anonymous reporting channel, SpeakUp (speakup@orbis.com). Orbis strictly prohibits retaliation against anyone who raises a concern in good faith.

13. Consequences of Violations

Violations of this Code may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment, and may also carry civil or criminal liability under applicable law.

14. Review and Amendments

Orbis reserves the right to review, amend, or update this Code at any time to reflect changes in law or business practice. Employees will be notified of material changes.